Center for Continuing Studies (CCS)

The Center for Continuing Studies is the response of Asian Theological Seminary to the growing need for quality theological training for pastors, Christian workers, lay leaders and professionals who are unable to attend regular seminary programs due to distance, economic reason and time constraint.

Through its One Degree Ministries it offers both practitioner-oriented programs and intentional mentoring that enable pastors to grow their churches as they grow in knowledge, skills and character.

The Center offers also seminars and modular courses that equip leaders to meet the changing demands and needs in the field.
